KOEN,

THE CLOTHIER, HATTER AND MERCHANT TAILOR

Corner of Second and Morrison sts.

—TO THE—

Dudes and Swells

And those who are so hard to please that they have to send away to other cities for their ill-fitting clothes, and then wait several weeks for their very bad bargains,

We Have a Few Words.

Of course full two-thirds of the readers of this card think that when a merchant advertises his wares he does it for fun; but think as you will, the merchant who advertises thinks different. He does it for business every time.

And Now Our Business

Is this: Twice a year we visit the largest Eastern cities for new styles and stocks, and we think that Portland may well feel proud of such establishments as ours, for even New York city has few that can compare with our mammoth stores.

We Don't Do Things for Fun,

But strictly for business.

—OUR—

MERCHANT TAILORING

DEPARTMENT

We will speak of first. Now to you all who are so hard to please, if you would take a few moments' time and step into our Tailoring Department, where the

BEST TWO CUTTERS IN THIS CITY

Are, who will take pleasure in showing our Novelties, maybe you will

OPEN YOUR EYES

In wonder at what you will see. No old rubbish such as is usually palmed off on the Portland public, but New Novelties, the very Choicest French, English and American Fabrics of this season's manufacture.

A Point

Of our business is this: While our goods are of the finest, you will find our prices full 20 per cent. less than regular prices of tailors here, and our work and fit is superior and WE GUARANTEE A PERFECT FIT. Our prices are lower because we buy from first hands, and because we want a small and living profit, and we won't have a different price to every customer. Our rule is STRICTLY ONE PRICE.

Our Spring Styles now will open and ready to the public inspection

MY OLDEST CHILD,

Now six years of age when an infant six months old, was attacked with a virulent, malignant skin disease. All ordinary remedies failing, we called our family physician who attempted to cure it but it spread with almost incredible rapidity until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched and malicious. We had no rest at night no peace by day. The physician did not know then and does not know now what it was. Finally we were advised to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. With little knowledge of our physician I procured a box of CUTICURA and a cake of CUTICURA SOAP. The effect

WAS SIMPLY MARVELOUS,

Using the two together first washing him thoroughly with CUTICURA SOAP then anointing him with CUTICURA. From the first application a change for the better appeared. The doctor said we had no further need of him and ceased his visits. In three or four weeks complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion your valuable remedies saved his life and to day he is a strong, healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred. You are welcome to make any use of this you may deem best.

WASHINGTON.

The Tenacity with which Semple Applied for the Governorship.

THE CONSUMPTION OF LIQUORS

Satisfactory Record by the Cruiser Atlanta—Pardons by the President—Chinamen Landing on Fraudulent Certificates

Semple's Endorsers.

WASHINGTON April 14—Gov. Eugene Semple of Washington territory has long been a candidate for the position formerly held by Mr Squire and the most admirable method marks his application and endorsement. In brief of his personal history and his endorsement written by himself Semple informs the president that he is the son of Hon James Semple, late United States senator from Illinois and chief justice of the supreme court of that state, commander of the forces in Rio Grande and charge d'affaires of New Granada. Mr Semple is 44 years of age and was practicing law at Portland until the past three years since which he has resided in Vancouver. He has always been a strong and consistent democrat. Mr Semple submitted a list of petitions and letters of endorsement that have been sent to the president asking his appointment and some idea of the formidable character of this list may be gained from the fact that it covered five pages of closely written manuscript. Among the endorsements are letters from Senators Pugh, Morgan, Coke, Maxey, [illegible] Colquitt, Jackson, Butler, George, Beck and Blackburn and representatives Morrison, King, [illegible] and Glover. Letters were also written by [illegible] Eugene Kelly and Samuel J Randall. Senator Dolph adds his indorsement and Delegate Hailey of Idaho writes a good letter. Eighty three democrats of the Illinois legislature also demand Semple's elevation to the governorship. Not least among the documents in the case is a letter from Semple dated April 1885 to Delegate Voorhees of Washington offering to make a canvass of the territory with other candidates for the office and submit the question of his fitness to a vote of the people

INTOXICATING LIQUORS.

Interesting Statistics Furnished by the Government.

WASHINGTON April 14—In the quarterly report of the chief of the bureau of statistics the consumption of distilled and malt liquors and wines and the estimates made by recognized authorities is dwelt upon at some length. In round numbers the consumption of distilled spirits domestic and imported in this country is shown to have increased from 43,000,000 gallons in 1840 to 72,000,000 in 1886, of wines from 4,800,000 gallons to 2[illegible],000,000, and of malt liquors from 22,000,000 to 642,000,000. An elaborate statement made by F N Barrett editor of the New York Grocer by request of the chief of the bureau is given which sets forth among other things that the present average expenditure in this country per annum for malt and spirituous liquors and beer at retail is $[illegible]00,000,000. The drinking population is estimated to be 14,925,417 making an average expenditure per capita of $44 [illegible]0 per year. During this period he says the consumption has risen from 8.2 pounds per capita to 9.11 pounds. These facts show that stimulants are driving out their competitors and are still to grow

IRISH MEETING AT WASHINGTON.

Speeches from Rosecrans, Springer and Others—Letter from John Sherman

WASHINGTON April 14—A meeting was held here this evening in the Masonic temple to give expression on the part of residents and sojourners at the national capital [illegible] a protest against the passage of the coercion bill for Ireland now pending in the British parliament. The chairman of the committee called the meeting to order and introduced Congressman Springer of Illinois who presided. After stating the purpose of the meeting Springer said: "The contest now going on in Great Britain in reference to the government of Ireland is one in many respects very similar to that which was carried on in the American colonies and it would not be inappropriate for Ireland to proclaim the immortal declaration of independence which 111 years ago was proclaimed in Philadelphia."

Gen. Rosecrans register of the treasury spoke briefly.

Ex Senator Van Wyck of Nebraska said that England had no more reason for her pretended right to oppress the American colonies than she had for oppressing Ireland. In our case she claimed the territory and planted her people. Ireland had been taken by conquest and spoliation for which the vengeance of men and just judgment of heaven had been too long delayed.

Congressman Crain of Texas read to the meeting resolutions prepared by a committee appointed for the purpose. The closing paragraph reads as follows

Resolved That the enactment of such diabolical laws would not alone be an outrage on the Irish people but a crime against the spirit of liberty everywhere and that the framers and advocates of the coercion bill should go down to posterity condemned by humanity and branded with infamy

The resolutions were adopted with cheers and music. The announcement was made that they would be cabled to Gladstone and Parnell.

A large number of letters of regret were read by the secretary. John Sherman wrote: "Your kind letter of the 6th, inviting me to attend a proposed mass meeting at Masonic temple for the purpose of entering a protest against the passage of the coercion bill now pending in the British parliament is received. I regret that I shall not be able to attend while sincerely sympathizing in the object of your meeting. I could not express my views on this important subject more accurately than I have done in a recent letter to Mr McWade, a copy of which I enclose." The letter referred to has already been published. Letters were also received from Roscoe Conkling and S S Cox

FIFTEEN KNOTS AN HOUR.

The Cruiser Atlanta Makes a Satisfactory Record on her Last Trial Trip

WASHINGTON April 14—The last trial trip of the cruiser Atlanta seems to have proved a complete success at least so far as the speed attained is concerned. A telegram received at the naval department this morning states that the average speed of fifteen and one half knots an hour was maintained for six consecutive hours while at times the vessel's speed exceeded sixteen knots per hour

No reports of the indicator test for horse power have yet been received at the department but computations made by engineering officers show that to attain the fifteen knots the engines must have made seventy five revolutions per minute which would indicate a development of the 3[illegible]0 horse power required by the contract. On yesterday's trial the vessel was not down to her load line lacking about 400 tons of her full equipment, but it is regarded by naval officers as beyond doubt that the Atlanta will be able with her full equipment and stores to make a sea speed of the thirteen knots for which she was designed

NEW YORK April 14—The Atlanta returned from the six hours trial trip up the Sound at [illegible] this morning. The trip had been made from off Willett's point up Middle rock ground channel past Execution rock under a spanking breeze and choppy sea and return. For six consecutive hours of the trial trip the vessel cleared the white caps with elegance under full pressure sometimes reaching sixteen and three quarter knots per hour and others only fourteen, the average speed being over fifteen and a half knots. The engines worked splendidly but they did not develop that power which was expected it would be safe to press on them in cases of emergency as in action or in chase. This may however not prove bad when the machinery gets toned down by constant running. It is anticipated she can do seventeen knots per hour at a pinch when the cylinders and bearings of the engines become easy by working

PRESIDENTIAL PARDONS

WASHINGTON April 14—The president has taken action on applications for pardon in the following cases: H H Meigs who was convicted of embezzling money from the mails and sentenced to nine years imprisonment in Chester was pardoned. W J Branum now serving a year's sentence in the Southern Illinois penitentiary for breaking into the post office with intent to steal was pardoned. A pardon was denied in the case of Geo S Dougherty. In the case of Selah G Card convicted of counterfeiting and sentenced to fifteen years in the Erie county penitentiary the president commuted the sentence to [illegible] years. He has already been [illegible] years. Pardons were granted to [illegible] Walton late teller of the First National bank of New York convicted of making false entries; Stephen H [illegible] convicted in Massachusetts of counterfeiting, and Van H O[illegible] convicted of robbery [illegible] sentenced to [illegible] years imprisonment in the [illegible] penitentiary. MUTILATED [illegible]

WASHINGTON April 14—[illegible] was received at the United States [illegible] [illegible] of [illegible] and were mutilated by having a piece cut [illegible] through [illegible] and then sealed on the [illegible] of the [illegible]. The package was sent to Washington [illegible] by a national bank in Texas. The [illegible] was evidently intended as [illegible] safe guard in transportation of the notes. This is said to be the [illegible] the first in-stance where new uninjured notes have been treated in this way. It is not known whether these particular notes were mutilated by the bank or by the express company but it is thought at the department that it was done by the bank to secure exchange on New York at the expense of the government. Acting Treasurer Whelpley refused to receive the notes and directed them returned to the bank at their expense with the statement that such mutilations are considered a violation of the law and will not be permitted by the department

FRAUDULENT CHINESE CERTIFICATES

WASHINGTON April 14—A report was recently received at the treasury department from Special Agent Beecher at San Francisco in regard to the landing at that port of three Chinamen on return certificates purporting to be issued by A M Bash collector of customs at Port Townsend but which certificates were subsequently discovered to be fraudulent, the collector's signature having been forged. The blank forms used were genuine and [illegible] to be a part of a lot stolen from the custom house in [illegible]. It is said that the forgery was committed by a person who knew that there was a break of about 100 numbers in the series recorded at Port Townsend and that he purposely made use of intervening numbers. In view of the fact that the collectors at San Francisco, Portland and Astoria have been advised not to accept as genuine returned certificates bearing any of the numbers comprised within the break in the series. The department does not feel called on to take any [illegible] the case beyond [illegible] protection of officers should they be discovered.

CATTLE TRAIL DENIED

WASHINGTON April 14—The secretary of the interior upon consideration of the request presented by cattle owners in Texas for the establishment of a new cattle trail through the Chickasaw territory has ordered that there is no law that empowers the interior department to make an appropriation of such portion of the land of the Chickasaw nation as would be required for the establishment of such cattle trail. The governor of the Chickasaw nation complains that cattle driven over the present route all graze on valuable ranges along trails at the expense of the nation. The secretary in his decision says, after refusing to grant the change: If however such cattle are permitted to wander outside of proper limits of the established cattle trail and public highways and are allowed to trespass upon grazing or other lands of the Chickasaws, and complaint of such trespass is made by the Chickasaws to the proper officer of the department it will be bound to take such action as will in its judgment fulfill the guarantees contained in treaties with these Indians and enforce the law against the trespassers and intruders in Indian territory

EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS

NEW YORK April 14—A Washington special says that Senator Beck is urging upon the president the necessity of calling a special session of congress as early as September. He believes that with the revenues coming in there will be a serious contraction of the currency unless congress takes measures to prevent it or unless bonds are bought at a high premium. The president has told the senator that he does not think an extra session necessary

THE HARTFORD TO BE CONDEMNED

NEW YORK April 14—The Herald's Washington special says: Senator Hearst called upon Secretary Whitney in regard to repairing the Hartford at Mare Island navy yard. The secretary informed his visitor he had given the matter careful consideration and had decided that the money necessary for this purpose would be practically thrown away, and the vessel will, therefore be condemned and sold

CONTRACTS FOR STEEL AWARDED

WASHINGTON, April 14—Secretary Whitney to-day awarded to the Iron Works company of Pennsylvania contracts for furnishing about 11,000 tons of steel gun forgings and 4500 tons of steel armor plates at a total cost of $4,512,938. Its bid though not the lowest for gun steel, was the lowest in the aggregate for the two contracts

LINCOLN'S BODY

How it has been Protected Since 1876—Its Final Resting Place

SPRINGFIELD Ill, April 14—The annual Lincoln memorial exercises will be held in the hall of representatives to-morrow. Deep interest is shown in the approaching exercises here on account of revelations which are expected to be made relative to the disposition of the body of President Lincoln after the attempt was made in 1876 to steal it from the sarcophagus under the Lincoln monument. The facts as near as could be ascertained by a press reporter, and which will be brought to light to-morrow in an address made by Clinton L Conkling one of the members of the Lincoln Guard of Honor are as follows: On the night of November 7 1876, Mullins and Hughes, two Chicago thieves made an unsuccessful attempt to steal the body of the late President Lincoln from the marble sarcophagus in which it was enclosed and which was exposed to the view of visitors through iron grating on the north side of the monument. This grating was forced open and the coffin taken out but at this point the robbers were interviewed by certain persons secreted in the monument, who received information that the robbery was to be attempted and abandoned their strange booty. Since that time the public mind has been in a state of uncertainty as to the real resting place of Lincoln's body, a report having gone out that it was not in the sarcophagus after the attempted robbery. All the mystery that has attached to the matter is now cleared away. It appears that the body was replaced in the sarcophagus and remained there about a week. The members of the association, however, felt that it was insecure, and it was subsequently removed to a place of greater safety. Finally the Lincoln Guard of Honor," which is composed of some of our best known and highly respected citizens was organized and one of the duties of this association has been to sacredly guard the body of the dead president. During the month of November, 1878 members of the guard, with their own hands prepared a vault within the monument for the body. An excavation was made in the earth about three feet south of the sarcophagus and the body was safely deposited therein and the mouth of the excavation was closed. The atmosphere at the point where the excavation was made was almost stifling and the work was prosecuted at different times during the stillness of night with no human eye to witness it save those who were assisting in the labor of love. Two days after the funeral of Mrs Lincoln in July 1882, her body was taken by the guard and laid beside that of her husband. The members bound themselves by the solemnity of an oath not to reveal what had been done until the proper time should arrive to do so and that time has now arrived. Yesterday both of those bodies were taken by the Lincoln Guard of Honor in the presence of the monument association and placed in a new receptacle prepared for them during the week. This receptacle is in the earth near where the sarcophagus has so long stood. It has on the bottom twelve inches of concrete and has double walls of brick. The entrance to it now that the bodies have been placed in their final resting place is cemented over and it will in time become as solid as rock. After this work had been completed the bodies were formally turned over by the guard to the monument association and were accepted by it. Before being finally entombed the body of Lincoln was opened and identified. The hair and whiskers have fallen off and the face is very black. [illegible] however still perfect and the face is said to strongly resemble that of the bronze statue on the monument

RAILROAD NOTES

DITCHED THE TRACK

WHEELING W Va. April 14—A construction train on the Ohio river railroad jumped the track at Willow Grove near Parkersburg last night, wrecking the engine and nine cars killing three men and wounding eight or nine others several of them fatally. From four to six laborers were badly injured but none of them it is said will die. The engine struck an obstruction while running at full speed

PROSPECTIVE DIVIDEND

INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS

BAZAAR Chase County Kas Feb 10 1886

I have been afflicted with chronic inflammation of the kidneys. I suffered so much pain that I could not lie on my back or lean back against a chair. My water also contained a chalky sediment. I tried many remedies but could get no relief. I then took two ALLCOCK'S PLASTERS and put one over each kidney, making them meet on my backbone. The plasters strange as it may seem cured me in a week. All soreness was gone and my urine was natural. R C HARRIS.

Liquor Law in Maine

AUGUSTA Me April [illegible]—A novel [illegible] trial in the supreme court here has developed [illegible] between the federal and state courts [illegible] result of the liquor law of the state [illegible] regulations of the internal revenue [illegible] provisions of the [illegible] a retail internal revenue tax [illegible] shall be considered [illegible] of a violation of the law and [illegible] shall be inflicted without [illegible] in the [illegible] on trial Reuben [illegible] is charged with violation of the law and deputy collector [illegible] Murphy was called to testify as to the [illegible] of retail tax by defendant. [illegible] refused to testify, stating [illegible] if he should give such evidence his action would be likely to reduce the amount of collections in his district besides being contrary to the instructions of the collector. Judge Whitehouse then ordered him committed for contempt of court and suspended action until 10 A M to-morrow the prisoner meanwhile remaining in the custody of the sheriff. This was to give Murphy an opportunity to settle the judgment. This morning Collector Redman telegraphed Judge Whitehouse that Murphy was acting in accordance with instructions of himself and the commissioner of internal revenue and requesting the prisoner's discharge. This request was not granted and the case was continued. The case will have an important bearing on the matter of administering the liquor laws adopted by the recent session of the legislature

VOLANTE AND THE BARD

What the Owners of these Racers Say about a Match

NEW YORK April 14—The Turf Field and Farm says: It was under date of March 8th writing from San Francisco that E J Baldwin said: "I will run Volante a match with Montana Regent or any other horse, after the Latonia meeting in June for $10,000 or more distance to be one and a half miles play or pay half forfeit." As soon as that was brought to the attention of A J Cassatt that gentleman addressed the following telegram to Baldwin: "I have seen your published challenge to run Volante after the Latonia spring meeting against any horse one mile and a half, for $10,000 half forfeit. If it be agreeable to you to run the match either at Coney Island during the spring meeting but not after June 30, or at Monmouth park during July I will accept your proposition and name The Bard." Cassatt expresses an earnest desire to make a match. "If Baldwin really wants to run his horse against The Bard he should reply to my telegram and the day should be agreed upon or if that cannot be done, I will agree to run at Coney Island or at Monmouth park during the first half of July on a day to be selected by the Turf, Field and Farm if no programmes are published that will interfere with the engagement of the horses

BALDWIN'S STATEMENT

SAN FRANCISCO April 14—E J Baldwin was interviewed to-day with reference to the proposed match between his horse Volante and Cassatt's The Bard. The probability of a race between the horses has been made the subject of much comment, and the wires have been laden daily with propositions of both parties to definitely place the matter on a certain footing. Your reporter requested Mr Baldwin to give his final views on the matter. Mr Baldwin's reply was as follows: "I have never made a banter or wager to run Volante against any special animal except Montana Regent. The terms in which I proposed to match Volante against him are so well [illegible] not repeat them. Now as to The Bard proposition [illegible] divide my stable and [illegible] in the spring [illegible] my horses out of valuable engagements [illegible] I think they have a good chance to win especially those in which Volante is engaged and which to me seem at his mercy. Therefore I will not run him against any horse in a match until after the Chicago meeting then if Volante is all right I will make a race for him against any horse in America for any reasonable amount at a distance not to exceed one mile and a half. I don't think I would match the horse a greater distance. This view of matching Volante is my final decision. My stables are all doing well except Laredo. You can make the following statement on my behalf, and so probably save considerable money for those who invest on horse races ahead of time. Laredo has shown considerable fever in his forelegs recently. As I consider him a valuable animal, I will not run him this year, and take the risk of his breaking down. So I will fire both his fore-legs and turn him out till next spring. Therefore Laredo will not race this year. I will send my horses from Los Angeles to Louisville next week. They are well and fit. In fact the past winter has been so open and favorable in California to training horses that they are now in better condition to run than they ever have been before the opening of a racing campaign

ABOUT THE SALE OF RAILROAD TICKETS

NEW YORK, April 14—In the dispute between the trunk lines and their western connections over the payment of commissions both sides scored points this morning. The Baltimore & Ohio turned western line tickets to the wall and all trunk lines turned to the wall tickets of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, which makes the western position solid. Commissioner Fink when asked the reason for this action said that tickets of the St Paul road were kept on sale till to-day under misapprehension. It was supposed from letters received that it would sign an agreement not to pay commissions, and it never did it. So therefore as the road continued to pay commissions its tickets were taken off sale by trunk lines. Representatives of western lines here are much pleased at this development. The Chesapeake & Ohio New York Ontario & Western and Lehigh Valley lines are still selling western tickets. However, it was said that they did not know how soon they might have to join the Trunk Line combination. Mr Fink said to-day that the visit of Commissioner Pierson and the trunk line passenger agents to Chicago had no more to do with the question of paying commissions for the sale of tickets in other words with the dispute between Eastern and Western roads than with the man in the moon. Mr Fink further said that the action of the trunk lines in cutting off the western roads was perfectly legal. Selling one line of tickets of another was simply a matter of agreement between the two. If they could not agree they simply declined to do business together

CONSECRATION CEREMONIES

PROVIDENCE, April 14—The ceremony of consecration of Bishop Harkins took place this morning at the cathedral. Church dignitaries from all parts of the country were present and as they marched from the Episcopal residence to the cathedral they formed a procession numbering near [illegible]

Archbishop Williams acted as consecrator vested in full pontifical robes assisted by Bishops [illegible] and McMahon who presented the candidate who had been clad in the vestments of his office. The apostolic commission was read and the oath administered. This was followed by the usual examination. Mass was addressed to the elect by the consecrator by placing of the gospels on his shoulders and laying on of hands to bless with the Holy ghost. Then prayer and the hymn Veni Creator Spiritus and anointment of the head and hands of the elect, the blessing and delivery of the gloves, singing of the Te Deum and the kiss of peace. The consecration sermon was delivered by Bishop Healey of Portland. Bishop Harkins succeeds the late Bishop Hendrickens

ELECTION FRAUDS

INDIANAPOLIS April 14—Something of a sensation was developed here to-day in connection with frauds alleged to have been committed at the last election. Under a ruling of Judge Gresham the prosecution were forced to transfer the cases to the state courts and the grand jury of the criminal court has been taking evidence in the matter. The jury is drawn to serve for six months, consists of [illegible] members and is equally divided politically. To day the republican members sent a letter to the judge, in which they stated that there was ample evidence to warrant the finding of indictments in election fraud cases but [illegible] such a result was prevented [illegible] of the jury refusing to take action. In conclusion, the three republican members asked to be excused from further service on the jury. Judge [illegible] on receipt of the letter expressed considerable indignation and said the facts stated developed something entirely new in criminal jurisprudence. He further said that the letter would be held for consideration at the beginning of the next term of court but took no other action

CLIPPER FREIGHTS TO PORTLAND

NEW YORK April 14—Clipper freights just now are experiencing a good healthy boom. Both Sutton and Van Vleck have all the freight engaged they can handle, and that, too of a character which has hitherto gone to San Francisco by rail. The C Southard Hulbert cleared to day for Portland, Oregon loaded to her full capacity with 1300 tons of assorted merchandise among which are about 1000 cases of dry goods. The rate covering insurance at 90 cents per hundred pounds. Sutton has chartered the ship Mary L Pendleton 1400 tons to arrive to take the Hulbert's place in the berth for Portland [illegible] due here any day. It is reported the Central Pacific is making a strong bid for the dry goods trade between New York and San Francisco [illegible] made a through special rate of $[illegible] per hundred pounds on canvas cotton warp cotton yarn [illegible] drills duck jeans sheeting and shirting in bales, also on cotton piece goods

NEW LABOR ORGANIZATION

PITTSBURG April 14—The Knights of Labor in this district have formed a national district assembly of iron and steel workers and an application will be made next week to Mr Powderly for a charter. The movement was inaugurated [illegible] months ago and has met with general favor. The new district will start out with twenty local assemblies and a total membership of over [illegible]. It will include every class of skilled and unskilled labor employed in iron and steel works throughout the country. Pittsburg is to be specially favored in conducting the business of the national district. It is expected that the headquarters will be here. The officers will consist of master workman, worthy foreman and executive board of seven. It is argued that as Pittsburg is the [illegible] of iron workers that the affairs of the national district could be transacted here. [illegible] will be located in every iron center in the country including Chicago New York Cincinnati and St Louis

FROM BLAINE TO SHERMAN

There can be no doubt that the movement of political opinion in the republican party is from Blaine to Sherman. Sherman is safe, prudent and able, he has stood the test of public life in high places longer than any man now before the country, he is noted for steadiness of judgment and conduct, and for a saving common sense that never evaporates in the fumes of excitement or ambition and the ability he has shown in every position has always been of the first order

One objection to him is that he is "too cold," another that he is "too old," and a third that he is "rich" He may be "cold" as compared with Mr. Blaine but if Blaine had had some of Sherman's cool judgment with which to sprinkle the heat and flame of his own temper and ambition, who can doubt that his life would have been more successful? As to age, Sherman is actually younger at 63 than Blaine is at 57, and should he be elected to the presidency he would be younger than Gen Jackson was at the beginning of his second term

As to wealth, Sherman is not rich enough to become an invidious mark, nor has he any wealth acquired by means that were ever brought into question As to actual wealth, his fortune is probably less than that of Mr Blaine. Sherman has always been a prudent and careful man of affairs, he has lived at moderate expense and made investments in real estate, which have turned out well He began these investments in a moderate way more than thirty years ago, and appreciation of property at several places has made him considerable money Recently he was reported to have sold at Findlay, Ohio, for $30,000, a parcel of land which he had bought some time before, for $10,000, and it was said also that he refused $125,000 for another tract that cost him $30,000. Sherman is supposed to be worth, as the phrase goes, say, three-quarters of a million dollars This fortune has been accumulating during many years, and has been made wholly through judicious and legitimate investments. He has neither the temperament nor the method of those who engage in that sort of speculation which expects to realize great values by getting into "deals" on the "ground floor."

These things some may regard as trifles, but they are really illustrative of character. In his personal affairs, as well as in his public life, Sherman has always been a man of excellent poise and judgment His name was never connected with any of the numerous scandals that have attached to so many men in public life His speeches on public affairs have always been conspicuous for directness, breadth and force, and they always carry matter that makes an impression on the public mind The speech he delivered at Nashville nearly a month ago is still the talk of the country, and is likely to be the text-book on which the presidential contest of next year will be pitched Upon these facts there is no occasion for surprise that the drift of opinion in the republican party is manifestly from Blaine to Sherman.

A SEASON OF "BOOMS"

A gambling craze, the like of which was never known before, prevails in several of the Western states and in California, and has taken the form of real estate speculation. Various towns in Minnesota, Dakota, Michigan, California and elsewhere are being "boomed" by professional agents The game, as it is played at Duluth or Los Angeles, is not more legitimate or more honest than mining stock manipulation or faro, but like these, it attracts dupes and victims by thousands This movement is noted as one of the "gravest signs of the times" by the Chicago Herald, which points out that "spurts in real estate have not heretofore preceded the revival of prosperity, but have followed it and are the sure forerunners of panics." The remark is suggestive and leads to the fear that the country may not, after all be entering upon an era of prosperity but upon a season of speculative excitement, to be followed by failure and distress There is encouragement, however, in the fact that in the midst of this extraordinary movement the great cities remain conservative and stable, seeking to prosper by legitimate methods, avoiding the "boom" as they would any other mischievous thing.

Portland fortunately has thus far escaped the boom fever Our people have not forgotten the terrible lesson of 1883-84. They know that a boom without basis in increased wealth and population would end as booms end everywhere, in flat collapse and general misfortune, that the ultimate effect would be destruction of confidence, demoralization of business and a general decline in property There is, indeed, a way to make a "boom" in Portland that will come to something and continue to be a public benefit for all time, namely, to found and prosecute industries that will create actual wealth.

THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE

The exchange just established in this city by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will follow the plan which has been successful at New York, Chicago and in many other cities throughout the United States A store will be maintained for the deposit of articles of all kinds made by women, ninety per cent of the proceeds of each sale going to the maker of the article sold, ten per cent being retained as commission Any woman who has anything to sell may fix her price and leave the article for three months at the exchange but if at the end of that time it has not found a purchaser it must be withdrawn to make room for a fresher article

These agencies serve a very useful purpose in giving women [illegible] to earn money and who have the capacity to produce things of artistic [illegible] the means of getting their work [illegible] There is no limit to the variety of [illegible] exchanges in the larger cities [illegible] draperies illuminated [illegible] paintings hand painted china embroidery ready made clothing canned fruit home made bread and pastry, pickles, and a thousand other things which cannot be found in general stores and which, indeed, would be out of place in such stores, here find a place of exhibit and usually a market Such an agency if well managed soon becomes attractive and fashionable and the means of doing a work far better than mere charity

IT WORKS

No one needs now to be surprised at any consequence of the interstate commerce law Since the South has found a first class iron-clad civil rights act snugly stowed away in the belly of the law, and since Chicago has begun to complain that she is reduced to the rank of a way station by roads which make the same rates from Eastern cities to Burlington, Keokuk and other points that they make to Chicago, there need be no surprise at any new development

Meantime it is worthy of notice (and admiration) that the one place which doesn't complain is New York The great metropolis is the single point which is wholly satisfied with the workings of the law and asks no suspensions or abrogations For New York is the great center of trade, where pretty much everything originates or ends and as there is no getting by New York, the metropolis is as well satisfied with the law as if it had been made for her especial benefit and advantage

The last report of the department of agriculture shows that the general and excessive indebtedness of the farming class has been greatly reduced from what it was ten years ago In the older states the wealth of the farming classes is now far in excess of the total indebtedness, but in the newly-opened sections west of the Mississippi the burden of indebtedness is still severely felt The report says that our existing war tariff makes the cost of farm supplies needlessly heavy and places the agriculturist at disadvantage, and attention is also called to the fact that farm labor is very high. On this point the report says it is not at all improbable that "a reduction in the wages of farm labor will be one of the movements in effecting an adjustment of values which at present are by no means equal The tendency of the times is towards lower rates of wages in all industries in this country, and it is a movement to be deprecated and delayed in the interest of a higher plane of culture and comfort for the working masses, if it cannot be wholly averted"

The people of this country will never feel alarmed so long as the labor socialists will be content to go to the polls with their grievances A free and honest ballot is not a bomb The danger ahead might be a great danger in Europe, but in America public opinion is not long patient with injustice or oppression It don't pay capital to fight the people it don't pay the labor tyrant to put capital to flight, paralyze enterprise or shackle the free right of any man to strike or work at will, and the natural progress is toward a better understanding of the mutual dependence of capital and labor. The safety of capital lies in the content and good will of labor, and the life of labor is the restless activity, confidence and courage of capital

Our wheat exports are low because of the competition of India Up to 1881 India exported to Great Britain but 6,600,000 bushels of wheat. Last year she exported 18,380,000 bushels. This increase is partly due to the extension of the Indian railway system, which in three years has been increased from 10,832 miles to 12,374 miles. The English administration of India proposes to add 1000 miles a year to the present railway system until 7514 miles of broad gauge road have been built. Our export of wheat under this competition has already fallen from $212,745,000 in value in 1881 to $88,704,000 in 1886 Our petroleum exports are threatened by the investment of the Rothschilds in the more thorough development of the Russian mineral district.

The democratic St. Louis Republican pats the president on the back and says "There are very few republicans left in presidential offices, but the fact remains nevertheless that Mr. Cleveland has worked silently and steadily, and he will go on until the civil service is thoroughly reformed" "That," remarks the Chicago Inter-Ocean, "is the democratic idea of civil service Now if the Eastern mugwump idea can be got at and compared. Will some organ East stand up and speak a piece from a mugwump standpoint?"

Gen Black, who, as a "complete physical wreck," draws an army pension of $5000, and as commissioner of pensions also $5000, has recently discharged a number of crippled Union soldiers from the clerical force of his bureau In other words, a man who is "a physical wreck" in the enjoyment of $10,000 a year has used his official opportunity to deprive a number of humble "physical wrecks" of a chance to earn their bread.

Col. N J Hall, one of the survivors of Fort Sumter, commanded a brigade at Gettysburg, where he greatly distinguished himself, and yet never got his star as brigadier-general or a brevet.

MR. CLAPP'S PROPOSITION.

PORTLAND, April 14

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Your editorial of yesterday hits the nail on the head not one, however, manufactured or likely to be manufactured in Oregon. I do not propose to enlarge on the smallness of our capitalists nor do I propose to even attempt to wake up our board of trade I simply wish to state some facts which will show our people that we can manufacture nails, tacks etc, cheaper at least than California. Mr Clapp having been a manager for the Judson Company must understand the process of manufacturing the above articles But I wish to get down to facts

First—We have water power unlimited If this is utilized it cheapens the fuel expense

Second—If the factory is situated at Portland and therefore steam is used we have far cheaper fuel than California, (San Francisco or Oakland where factories are situated) This may be doubted by some but leaving out the question of wood as fuel, of which we have an abundance very cheap we can import coal or coke from any part of the world cheaper than San Francisco can

Third—We have fine pig iron produced at our very door, and if that is not good enough we can import any brand from any port in Europe cheaper than San Francisco can We can import scrap iron cheaply, and in fact, when the car shops are in full blast at Albina we can furnish from them alone a large supply of scrap iron for a small rolling mill and nail factory Mr. Clapp, of course, did not mean a rolling mill such as has been dreamed of here he meant light work, nails, tacks, etc

The materials entering into the making of these and all the concomitants as I have said are as readily imported here at cheaper prices than at San Francisco But let us go further and say that these goods can be manufactured here as cheaply as at San Francisco, will not the freight on them be saved that would have to be paid on the San Francisco manufactured and shipped article? Will not the raw material imported help us in getting direct vessels, instead of bringing our raw and manufactured articles through San Francisco? Besides this, consider the men to be employed in the mills. I wish to add that we might start a hundred factories and turn out excellent goods and wares, but unless our wholesale merchants and our dealers chose to purchase them and introduce them where is the use of manufacturing them The proposition of Mr Clapp is so reasonable and his experience so great if, as he says, he has been and is the superintendent of the Judson Manufacturing Company of Oakland, that it should almost awaken some of our Rip Van Winkles It is true that some one at our board of trade (of which I am a proud member) said at the last meeting that there was one such factory already on the coast south of us and that another might be started up north of us that shows simply that people both north and south of us have sufficient energy to start such works while we sit quietly and pay tribute Why should we get nails from California when they can be produced here cheaper than there?

Now it is an axiom that no one man has a right to dictate to another what he shall do with his capital I, a poor man have no right to say to a rich man, or to the rich men of the community build factories yet we all have the right to point out the fact that our rich men do not care to advance the country or the country's interests, as rich men do in other communities that cent per cent is there motto that they build fine buildings because they bring fine interest on the investment They would not combine to build a nail factory at the to them enormous sum of $35 000 It would seem to them rank speculation and they are not speculators And yet when Mr Villard went to them a few years back and tickled them with the straw of his suavity they sneezed a polite sneeze and [illegible] This was no speculation Villard had told them that he had let them in as particular friends and they sat back and were [illegible] They had expected to simply draw big interest on their investment they were to ride free in gilded palace cars they were to become more rich and more [illegible] and each of them really believed that at his demise the world would stop revolving [illegible] But all this vision suddenly changed and [illegible] citizens awoke and [illegible] held plenty of Villard [illegible] and they felt [illegible] to know if their brains were still [illegible] factory [illegible] remain [illegible] that enter into [illegible] than San Francisco

That [illegible] cheaper coal or coke [illegible]

That [illegible] on the nails from San Francisco [illegible]

That [illegible] the raw materials would stimulate direct [illegible] to our port

That the factory would give employment to a number of men NAILS

FROM AN INTERESTED PARTY.

PORTLAND April 14

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I have read carefully Mr Clapp's letter to the board of trade also your scathing but too true leader regarding factories Probably a few remarks from an interested party may serve to educate

It is simply absurd to say the $35 000 would be sufficient to start a rolling mill and factory. Next, the demand is not sufficient. Last year the consumption was 73 000 kegs—say 6000 per month—in the Northwest. In addition to the cost of plant, material has to be considered which must be purchased in cargo lots Coal for the purpose is purchased in Australia and scrap in Calcutta and Europe The nailers are all union men and apprentice only their own offspring and these men must come from the East.

Even should a factory be established here competition must be met as home industry has to fight—not white and dealers here would buy where they could buy best or take chances of losing trade

Don't imagine I want to discourage all manufactures on the contrary, because it means prosperity and population and can only call attention to the monthly dividends from such paid in our sister state California. To give impetus to investors we have to show dividend paying concerns established here with stock scattered to prevent the freeze out curse which is too rampant in this section and let us rejoice that others share the benefits Promoters of companies here are all aware of the timidity of capital and although they may be "knocked out" that need not discourage them from trying again because we will have factories here sooner or later and I sincerely trust without waiting for "coffin nails" which you seem to think necessary JUNIOR

The Ruddy River

Of life is the blood From it the system receives all its material of growth and repair It bathes every tissue of the body. How necessary, then, that the blood should be kept pure and rich. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is the great blood food and blood purifier. It is a sovereign remedy for all diseases due to impoverished blood consumption, bronchitis, weak lungs, scrofula, influenza, and kindred diseases.

NO INFRINGEMENT.

Victory in the Courts for a Portland Invention

A. J Coffee's "Unhitcher" and "Recorder" for Engine Houses Declared as not Infringing Bragg's Patents in the Same Line

The case of Robert Bragg vs The City of Portland was brought to a termination yesterday in the U S Circuit Court by a decision in favor of the city The suit was brought for an alleged infringement of Mr Bragg's two patents, Nos 6831 and 173 061 covering what is known as "Bragg's Electro magnetic Tripping and Recording Mechanisms These devices are used in engine houses of fire departments for releasing horses opening doors turning on gas and recording the number of the box from which an alarm is given by electricity The devices used by the city consist of an "electric horse unhitcher" and an "electric signal recorder" They are both the original inventions of A J Coffee superintendent of the fire alarm and are secured to him by United States patents Nos 339 013 and 339 381 The decision of Judge Sawyer is that the Coffee devices do not in any particular infringe the Bragg patents, and hence Mr Coffee is left in the undisputed possession of his inventions from which he will now doubtless reap a rich harvest as it is understood that Mr Bragg admits them to be far superior to his devices

The case was presented in a most thorough and exhaustive manner by the special attorney employed by the city, Mr J H. Miller of San Francisco Some fifteen or twenty models of different devices being offered in evidence as bearing on the question Among these was a model of Prof Morse's first invention, made in the year 183_ and commonly called Morse's Picture Frame Model from the fact that it was made out of an old picture frame by the great discoverer of telegraphy An ordinary Morse register was also offered in evidence, which was used by the Western Union Telegraph Company twenty years ago in New York city Other interesting relics of early days were a bell ringer used by the fire department of New York forty years ago to summon firemen and a model of M G Farmer's patent of 1853 These various models were connected with an electric battery in the court room and practical tests of their working made There were also models of the time balls used at Greenwich observatory Liverpool, Glasgow and Port Elizabeth at Cape of Good Hope These various devices were used to show that they contained the same principle as Bragg's patents By far the neatest pieces of mechanism exhibited were Mr Coffee's unhitcher and recorder The first consists of an upright lever or post pivoted at the bottom and over which the halterstrap is thrown as a hitching post The upper end is caught behind a small roller fixed in one end of a horizontal lever This lever is connected by a stem with the armature of a magnet. When the roller is down no amount of force on the halterstrap can pull down the hitching post but when the armature is attracted to the magnet as in case of an alarm, the roller is lifted so as to clear the end of the hitching post, which the horse then pulls down thus releasing himself

The recording device is a still more perfect mechanism and was an object of admiration by all present and especially Mr Bragg who testified that it was the most perfect recorder he had ever seen This device is an improvement on the Morse register and is the only recording device known which makes a legible record of any size desired except perhaps the Gamewell which works on a different principle It is too complicated to admit of a detailed description here These devices have been in continual use by the city of Portland for over a year and have never yet failed in operation They are undoubtedly the most perfect devices of the kind in existence

The effect of the decision on the Bragg patents is disastrous inasmuch as it decides that the principles therein embodied were not discovered by Bragg, but were old and well known for many years prior to his patents and the scope of his invention is merely the embodiment of those old principles into a particular construction of mechanism No one therefore is an infringer unless he uses Bragg's particular construction The legal effect of this is to take away from Bragg a broad construction and leave him merely a skeleton of practically no value whatever In other words, his patents need not be feared now by any one

Since Mr Bragg last sued Portland he has made several trips to the East. In one instance he sold the right to a number of cities for a large sum of money and subsequently sold his right to the rest of the Eastern cities including the largest to a syndicate for $125 000 receiving $15 000 in cash and the balance in stock From this it will be seen that Coffee's patent cut quite a figure in this last case and shows plainly why Mr Bragg was anxious to have it declared an infringement. As the court has declared otherwise Mr Coffee can now safely introduce his appliance in fire engine houses in the different cities of the Union He has a fortune ahead of him the prospect of which pleases him no more than it does his many friends here The case was prosecuted by Messrs Watson Hume & Watson and the city was defended in addition to Mr Miller by Messrs Tanner & Carey

QUESTIONS ABOUT POLICE.

PORTLAND April 14

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I am informed that Ben Cockerell, an alleged detective is drawing a regular salary as a policeman I am also informed that both he and Sam Simmons have been for some time employed in hunting up evidence to impeach the witnesses of Mrs Emil Weber in her suit against her husband for a divorce I would like to know it this is what the city pays policemen for and also by what right Cockerell draws a salary or is paid one out of the secret service fund. I think there is no impropriety in asking for information on these subjects which are of interest to everyone who is A TAXPAYER

In the state circuit court department No. 2 yesterday, May Ashley pleaded guilty to keeping a house of prostitution, and was fined $100. She was arrested and held to answer some months ago in Justice Tuttle's court, on complaint of another woman.

Justice Tuttle yesterday dismissed the cases against Pat O'Brien and Dr. R. A. Keyes of assault with a dangerous weapon on each other, Keyes using a cane and O'Brien a stick of stove wood. The court concluded that no particular damage had been done.

The interstate commerce law is evidently worrying the people of other states as well as Oregon. Mr. Larsen, clerk of the U. S. courts, has received a telegram from a citizen of Nashville, Tenn., requesting a copy of Judge Deady's decision in regard to this law.

The first butterfly of the season was seen flitting around in the sunshine yesterday. It was not a remarkably beautiful creature, but looked like a last year's butterfly which had wintered poorly. The coolness of the atmosphere seemed to chill it, and it evidently wished that it had kept out of sight till snow had disappeared from the mountains.

A reception will be given this evening at the Second street Baptist church, corner Second and Oak streets, to Rev. P. M. Weddell, the newly elected Baptist city missionary. Addresses will be made by Revs. Thomas Boyd, G. M. Petree, J. [illegible] Ferry and others. Mr. Weddell will begin preaching services in the Meade street church next Sunday evening.

When they have any leisure they will fish for [illegible] under the bridge.

A San Francisco exchange of the 11th has the following: The United States circuit court was occupied Saturday by the suit of Wells, Fargo & Co. against the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company. The plaintiff sues to recover $11,263 damages alleged to have resulted from the refusal of the defendants to carry a certain quantity of [illegible] from Washington territory to this city.

Yesterday afternoon, when the train came in from Tacoma, a baggage master whirled a frail [illegible] around on the platform and out flew a bible and a branding iron. The spectators, after considering the matter, came to the conclusion that the trunk must belong to a converted cowboy [illegible], whose intention it was to brand his converts so that they might not wander off on the [illegible] hills of sin and be rounded up by the evil [illegible] and lost.

IN THE Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

Some few weeks since the ladies' committee of the Young Men's Christian Association invited representative ladies of the various churches of the city to aid them in giving a "bazaar of all nations," the proceeds of which were to help the association to secure the amount necessary to erect the building. After due consultation the ladies decided not to give the bazaar at present, but to [illegible] by solicitation among the members of their respective churches an amount of money with which to aid the enterprise. At a meeting held yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the association the ladies of the First Presbyterian church reported to the treasurer of the ladies' committee the [illegible] $[illegible]; the ladies of the First Congregational church, $[illegible]; the ladies of Taylor-street M. E. church, $[illegible]; the ladies of the First Christian church, $17 50, making a total of $404 50, with [illegible] large churches who are working and not [illegible] present to report to be heard from.

The ladies are hopeful that $1000 at least may be raised in this manner. The association at Los Angeles commenced their building fund last fall, with [illegible] purpose to secure $20,000 for a building, but [illegible] have decided that to meet the growing [illegible] association work a building costing not [illegible] $100,000 is required and have already [illegible] $80,000 of that amount. VERDICT FOR THE DEFENDANT.

The trial of the suit of David Robertson vs. F. [illegible] Leach was concluded in Judge Shattuck's court yesterday afternoon. Robertson sought to recover [illegible] thousand dollars from Leach for goods furnished, moneys advanced, and for the rental of [illegible] at Milwaukie. Robertson formed a [illegible] there, which he called "Robertsons." [illegible] moved a foundry from Portland to the town, and Robertson claims he was to pay him $720 [illegible] for the use of the ground. Leach, on the other hand, claims he was in partnership with [illegible] in selling lots and booming the town, and, therefore, owes him nothing. The jury, after [illegible] deliberation, returned a verdict for the defendant [illegible] $1. Leach was so demonstrative in expressing his thanks to the jury that the court called [illegible] order.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE SISKIYOU TUNNEL.—It is thought that within a day or two the Southern Pacific will reach a decision relative to letting a contract for finishing the incomplete tunnel begun by the Oregon & California through the Siskiyous. The former contractors, Messrs. D. P. Thompson, E. J. Jeffery, D. D. McBean and R. M. Steel, have a complete plant on the ground, which cost them $30,000, and the probability is that they will get the contract, or that the Southern Pacific will buy the plant. Mr. Thompson is now in Ashland conferring with one of the company's engineers on the subject, and an answer is expected here to-day by telegraph. When work was stopped in 1885, the contractors were making progress at the rate of sixteen feet every twenty-four hours, eight feet at either end, and it is reasonably expected that twelve feet a day can be made now; so the tunnel can be finished within four months after work is resumed. Enough foremen are within easy call, and drill men can soon be secured. Should the old firm secure the contract they will probably be able to commence work within a week after negotiations are concluded.

BEAUTIFUL COLLECTION OF WILD FLOWERS.—A large and tastefully arranged bouquet of wild flowers displayed in the window of Wisdom's drug store yesterday attracted considerable attention. A card attached stated that the flowers were gathered in Belmont park, Mt. Tabor. Mr. Wisdom has recently purchased a tract of several acres on the mount, where he intends to build a fine residence, and the bouquet, which consisted of white and red blossoms of the trillium or Wake Robin, the beautiful pink flowers of the wild currant, the glossy green leaves and bright yellow blossoms of the Oregon grape, sprays of manzanita with pretty wax balls, dogwood blossoms and other flowers, was evidently intended to convey the impression that Flora herself has her residence at Mt. Tabor, and that she is not there merely for her health. Mr. Henry Prettyman is about to commence the cultivation of pineapples at Mt. Tabor on a large scale, and he will plant a large grove of cocoanut trees as soon as he finds out how the milk is put inside the nuts.

KILLED BY A TREE.—Frank Merriweather, a time keeper for railroad bridge contractor N. J. Blagen, at the front, on the Cascade division, was going his rounds Monday, taking time of the workmen, when an old dead tree fell, striking Merriweather. The injured man was taken from under the tree, says the Tacoma Ledger, when it was found that he had received internal injuries. He lived but about twenty hours after the accident. He was about 35 years of age and had no family as far as could be learned. He had been living upon the Sound and in the valley for the past three or four years, and was well respected by those who knew him. Merriweather was a Knight Templar of good standing and his body has been kindly cared for by friends. His remains were brought to Tacoma Wednesday and embalmed, and will be shipped to Shipman, Illinois, where a brother of the deceased, E. B. Merriweather, resides.

SEVEN NEW COTTAGES.—Contracts were let this week at the office of architect W. F. McCaw for six cottages to be built for Dr. R. Glisan, on B street between North Ninth and North Eleventh. There will be three on each quarter block. Three will contain six rooms and three eight rooms. Three will be colonial style and three modern. No two will be alike. Work will commence at once. The cost will be about $15,500 for the six buildings. The successful bidders were: Carpenter work, O. E. Barton & Co.; brick work, W. B. Steel; plastering, A. Sutherland; painting, Berger & Bock; plumbing, John Barrett; furnace pipes, Brigham & Weeks; draws, John Jackson. A contract was also let at the same office for a handsome cottage for E. H. Loutitt, on the west side of West Fourteenth, near L, to cost about $2500. John Robertson was the successful bidder.

JUDGE STRONG'S WILL.—The will of the late Judge William Strong was filed for probate in the office of the county clerk yesterday. It provides that, after all the ordinary expenses are paid, his sons, Curtis C., Frederick R., Thomas N. and Wm. J. Strong, shall receive each $75, and that the balance and residue of the estate revert to his daughters, Ellen and Caroline Strong. The will is dated November 8, 1884, and witnessed by Henry Failing and George Withington. John W. Brazee and B. G. Whitehouse were named as administrators without bonds. Since the making of the will John W. Brazee has died and B. G. Whitehouse declined to serve. Yesterday in the county court the sons of the deceased filed a petition waiving and relinquishing all their rights and Caroline and Ellen Strong were appointed administratrix of the estate, which is valued at $5000.

SLIM ATTENDANCE.—Yesterday in the police court there was one judge, one city attorney, one court clerk, a couple of policemen, a dog and one inebriate, Pat Barney. Policeman Belcher testified that Barney, besides being drunk when arrested, was very abusive. Barney was fined $5, and apparently feeling lonesome at being the only victim, called out to Judge Dement: "Your honor, can't I have that policeman arrested?" The court while stepping down from the bench informed the prisoner that he could interview the prosecuting attorney on that subject if he felt like it. Barney has been arrested some twenty times during the past two months and every time has given a different name. He is now serving out two days.

PRIZE COMPOSITIONS.—Yesterday the committee having charge of the examination of compositions by children of the public schools, submitted in competition for the prizes offered by the Oregon Humane Society made the following awards: Park street school—First prize, Hattie Crawford; second, Gertrude White. Harrison street school—First prize, Emma Cornelius; second, Roy Allen. North school—First prize, Jennie Johnson; second, Lillie Failing. Couch school—First prize, Ivy Morgan; second, Maggie Brasel. Failing school—First prize, Tommy Marquam; second, Lottie Richards. These compositions will be read at the anniversary meeting of the society at the Unitarian church to-night.

READY TO REBUILD.—The Columbia River Paper Company are clearing away the debris of their burned mill at LaCamas preparatory to rebuilding. They advertise in another column for sealed proposals for all the wrought and cast iron scraps and melted brass found in the ruins of the burned mill. As there was a great deal of machinery in the mill the refuse metal will amount to something. It will be a glad day for LaCamas, as well as for the stockholders of the mill, when the first beam of the new structure is laid, and every person in the Northwest will be pleased to learn of its being completed and running once more.

CAN NOT FIND HER SISTER.—Mrs. L. McClain writes to Justice Tuttle from Clifton, Oregon, asking for information as to the whereabouts of her sister Annie Magness. The latter had Charles and James Turk arrested for attempt at outrageous assault and the grand jury ignored the charge. At that time Annie Magness was in charge of Larry Neville, and Mrs. McClain came here in search of, but didn't find her. She writes that on her return home she has still been industriously inquiring for her sister, but without success, and fears she has met with foul play.

PREPARING FOR IDLENESS.—The rigging of many of the ships in port was alive with sailors yesterday shaking out the sails to dry. Several of the crews were busy sending down the top hamper of their ships and making them ready for lying in idleness for the summer. The present deal in wheat in California has prevented some of the ships from getting charters, and they will have to lie here till the new crop comes in. By striking their topmasts and slinging ballast logs alongside the empty ships will not need to take in stiffening.

HUGE POLAR BEAR SKIN.—Probably the rarest of all fur skins seen in these parts is that of the polar bear. The animal is not within easy reach of civilization and he is not so gentle as his cousin the grizzly. He is the John L. Sullivan of his kind. Some idea of the size of a real large polar bear can be had from a look at a skin received recently by E. R. Behlow. It is nine feet six inches long, and "experts" declare that the animal which wore it must have weighed a ton or more. The fur is perfectly white.

ANNIVERSARY AND PRIZE DISTRIBUTION.—The prizes of the Humane Society are on exhibition at 69 Morrison street—W. T. Shanahan's. This evening (Friday) the public exercises of the anniversary will take place at the Unitarian church, at 8 o'clock. The prize essays will be read, a European letter by Miss E. C. Sabin, and music—Miss Cornelia Harris in solos; Mr. R. Hoyt, organ solos. There is a small admittance charge in lieu of collection.

CLOSING EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.—The closing meeting of the Union Evangelistic movement will be held this evening in the Taylor street M. E. church. The sermon will be preached by Rev. E. W. Caswell, pastor of Grace M. E. church. The presence of all who have been attendants, and members of churches, is earnestly urged by the committee in charge.

INSANE.—Sheriff Herbert, of The Dalles, arrived here yesterday, having in charge George Greeley, en route to the insane asylum at Salem. Greeley is a young man about 25 years of age and said first that he had been blown up by a steam engine, and again that a horse kicked him and cracked his skull. He said he had been at The Dalles about a year.

HANDSOME HORSE.—The finest piece of horseflesh seen in Portland this year was driven around the streets yesterday and attracted much attention. He is Colonel B., a very dark-brown stallion, 9 years old, 15½ hands high, by Kentucky Dan, a grandson of Rysdick's Hambletonian. He is owned by Silas Beebe, who arrived here last winter from Michigan.

INDICTMENTS PIGEON-HOLED.—The last grand jury found a large number of indictments against various prostitutes in this city. Some few of them were arrested and fined, but the large majority were not. The sheriff has, it is said, a drawer full of these indictments not yet acted upon.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Henry Blackman, of Pendleton, is at the Gilman.

Judge Sawyer leaves for home, overland, this morning.

Jay Stone, of Washington, D. C., is in the city. He has been acting as special stenographer at the recent court-martial held at Fort Cœur d'Alene.

Mr. John W. Allen and family, Frank Bandham and S. E. Johnson, of Spokane Falls, arrived here yesterday, and will take the next steamer for Juneau, Alaska, where they will engage in mining.

Mr. T. C. Fletcher, of Indianapolis, the well-known importer of fine cattle, is in the city, the guest of his friend I. W. Baird, at the Quimby. Mr. Fletcher will remain in the state about a month.

BASE BALL NOTES.

FIRST LOCAL GAME NEXT SUNDAY, WEATHER PERMITTING—THE SEATTLE REDS.

If the weather permits next Sunday, the Portlands and Willamettes will play the first game of the season at the Oaks, East Portland. Christy and Parrott, pitchers of the respective nines, have been working hard and are in good trim. The other players have practiced all they could "between showers," and the game, for an opening one, is likely to be reasonably free from errors. Nines will be as follows:

Timmons	Catcher	Turnbull
Christy	Pitcher	T. Parrott
Buchtel	Short Stop	Wills
Mebus	First Base	Mathoit
Glendenning	Second Base	Overbaugh
Edwards	Third Base	W. Parrott
Smith	Center Field	Bailey
Connolly	Right Field	Hoesley

The soldiers at Vancouver barracks have organized a club under the name of the Arlingtons, and the second game of the season will probably be between them and the Portlands.

The Seattle club are organized for the season and will be ready to play on or after May 1. Their grounds have been put in good shape. Dickey, who has been practicing with the Memphis team all winter, will be back in Seattle in time to play the season through. Toklas & Singerman, the leading dry goods firm in Seattle offer a $100 pennant for the champions of 1887. The team is composed of Bailey, Burwell and Burnell, catchers; Dickey, Cassell and Booth, pitchers; Thornell, first base; Dallas, second base; Heilbron (a Harvard man), third base; Martin, short stop; Begley, left field; O'Neil, center field; Kenney, right field.

UNREMOVED RUBBISH.

A STATEMENT AS TO THE DEPARTMENT WHOSE DUTY SEEMS TO BE NEGLECTED.

In reference to a communication published yesterday in regard to rubbish dumped in the street, and asking "Where is our street superintendent?" it may be stated once more that the superintendent of streets has nothing to do with this matter. It may be that he ought to, but some time since this duty was placed on the shoulders of the chief of police. If he has ever exerted himself to enforce the ordinance in regard to this matter no one has noticed it.

The reason why the duty of attending to this matter was taken from the superintendent of streets and given to the chief of police was because the superintendent of streets cannot go all over town every day, and the chief of police has a large force under him, who are supposed to patrol all the streets in the city every day, and they should notice every infringement of the ordinance in regard to dumping rubbish in the streets and report it, and the matter should be attended to. The trouble in the matter is that things have come to such a pass in this city that a policeman is afraid to report things for fear that some one will get him off the force, and the authorities are very diffident about enforcing any ordinance against taxpayers or voters, especially when an election is looming up in the near future.

A THIEF CONVICTED.

THE MAN WHO STOLE FARMER ALLEN'S MONEY FOUND GUILTY.

Al Slader was tried and convicted by a jury in Judge Stearns's court yesterday on a charge of larceny. The case has been so frequently written up as to need but little explanation. Isaac Allen, a farmer, came to town some months ago and visited John Faulis's dive, at Main and Front streets, and, while there, got drunk and was relieved of $110. Slader, May Dorner, Florence Fallon, Lizzie Faulis and John Faulis were all implicated in the affair. Allen testified to seeing Slader going through his pantaloons pockets while he was in bed upstairs in a room over the dive. Slader denies taking any of Allen's money. Charles H. Hewitt, who appeared for Slader, objected to the indictment as drawn on the ground that it accused Slader of larceny from the person, while even if Allen's testimony was true, Slader took the money from out of his pantaloons pockets when they were not on Allen's person, but hanging on the end of a bed post. Slader was found guilty as charged, nevertheless.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.

PORTLAND, April 14.

2. Yes. Any one may apply for examination and receive it.

3. In one of the public schools of this city—usually the High school.]

A CRITICISM OF GOV. PENNOYER.

SALEM, Oregon, April 14.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

I notice in yesterday's issue of THE OREGONIAN that the contracts for the bulk of the supplies and material needed for the contemplated improvements at the asylum has been awarded by the board to the Portland Lumbering & Manufacturing Company. I understand that Gov. Pennoyer owns the controlling interest and is manager of the above corporation. Does it not show very bad taste in the governor to enter into contracts with the state board, of which he is the chairman? Does Gov. Pennoyer consider this as pertaining to the legitimate perquisites of the office? It is certainly a gross impropriety.

AN EMPTY GRAVE.

A HEADSTONE BEARING DATE OF 1814, BUT NO BODY UNDERNEATH IT.

In the Hillside cemetery is a grave which is doubtless the oldest marked of any north of San Francisco. The memorial is a sandstone slab, on which is recorded that he who sleeps beneath bore the name of McTavish, and that he was buried there in 1814.—Astorian.

The gravestone bearing the name McTavish and date 1814 was taken to Hillside cemetery in 1851. An account of the removal is furnished by Mr. A. B. Phelps, who at the time was a soldier under Major Hathaway and went to Astoria from Fort Vancouver in 1851. The officers' quarters were then in what is now known as the Welch neighborhood, then the location of a small cemetery. More room being necessary to accommodate the troops, it was decided to remove the bodies and headstones to what is now Hillside cemetery. When the McTavish stone was reached, excavation discovered no remains or appearance of any having been buried beneath or very near the stone. As a coffin had been provided for the remains and a new grave dug, the officer in charge ordered the coffin filled with earth, placed in the grave and the stone moved over it. This was done, and since 1851 the stone has been over a grave containing earth and pine boards only, yet the visitor has shown all the respect to the empty grave that would be shown one known to be filled. Mr. Phelps says McTavish was a Hudson Bay man, the name being quite familiar in connection with that company. That he died and was buried there in 1814 is not questioned. No doubt the body was afterward taken up and sent to relatives or friends.

THE STAGE.

THE NEW MARKET.—"Over the Garden Wall" drew a large audience last evening on the occasion of its second presentation at New Market. Aside from its specialty features there is really little to the play; but with the songs, dances and grotesque comedy introduced frequently the piece furnishes an unfailing fountain of innocent fun. It is loud and noisy but never approaches broadness, and is wholly free from any suggestiveness that so frequently mars specialty plays. Everything is done naturally and with a grace and finish that bespeaks the artiste. Knight of course is the central figure, and absorbs the principal interest. He is excessively funny in all his business. His songs are new and rendered in capital style. There is nothing stereotyped about his acting, and he never exaggerates or steps beyond the modest limits of nature or propriety. His drunken scene, though somewhat protracted, was the most ludicrous and laughable feature of the performance. The songs "That Settles It" and "Far, far Away" were simply immense and provoked immoderate merriment. Mr. Foy was very clever in his character songs and specialty business, winning several encores. Mrs. Knight, in the Echo song, was very warmly applauded, while her "Moonlight Waltz" was beautifully sung and exquisitely danced. The support was prompt and efficient.

To-night "Baron Rudolph," a comedy in which Mr. Knight in the title role conceals the identity of a real baron under the guise of a tramp.

A. ROBERTS,

The Leading Clothier,

Shows this Spring a beautiful line of Light-Weight Suitings, being a direct importation from the great London House of DORMEUIL FRERES. There is, of course, nothing equal to a custom-made suit when gotten up by first-class workmen; but we have magnificent proofs in our grand line of

Men's and Boys' Suits,

For Spring, that careful study and cultivated taste are exercised in the production of Fine Ready-made Clothing. We are justly proud of our line of Clothing, and the man or boy must indeed be hard to please who cannot select a suit from our stock.

Light Overcoats.

You should see our Spring Styles, the New Designs in the goods, the whole undertaking brought to perfection now, and ready for this first Spring month!

Cancer of the Tongue.

My wife, some three or four years ago, was troubled with an ulcer on the side of her tongue near the throat. The pain was incessant, causing loss of sleep and producing great nervous prostration. Accompanying this trouble was rheumatism. It had passed from the shoulders and centered in the wrist of one hand, she almost losing the use of it. Between the suffering of the two, life had grown burdensome. By the use of a half dozen small-sized bottles of Swift's Specific, she was entirely relieved and restored to health. This was three years ago, and there has been no return of the disease.

Proceedings of Oregon Presbytery at Eugene City.

CALIFORNIA RAILROAD SCHEME

Seattle to be Connected by Rail with the Canadian Pacific—Goldenson Receives his Death Sentence—Unknown Suicide at Seattle.

The Oregon Presbytery

EUGENE CITY, April 14.—The presbytery convened at [illegible] A. M.

The committee on church records made reports which were adopted.

Rev. H. A. Newell signified his acceptance of the call to the Salem church. Subsequently his installation was set for the second Wednesday in May. Rev. Murgatroyd to preside and propose constitutional questions, T. Boyd to preach the sermon, L. J. Thompson, D. D., to deliver the charge to the pastor and W. T. Holt the charge to the people.

By request Mrs. W. O. Forbes, secretary of the ladies' missionary committee, was allowed the privilege of the floor and read a communication to the presbytery appealing to it for co-operation and aid in furtherance of their special work.

Revs. Newell and Thompson and Elder Plummer were appointed a committee to prepare an answer to the communication.

Elder Honeyman submitted a report on the treasurer's report and called attention to the fact that several churches had failed to hand in their assessments. The report was accepted and the names of the churches in arrears are called for.

Rev. Prichard signified his acceptance of the pastoral call at the Albany church. The time for the installation was set for the third Wednesday in May, Rev. E. R. Murgatroyd to preside, Rev. H. A. Newell to preach the sermon, E. J. Thompson, D. D., to deliver the charge to the minister and E. N. Condit the charge to the people.

Dr. Thompson addressed the presbytery in reference to the present status of the Albany Collegiate Institute. He was followed by other members and an earnest desire to do all in our power seemed to prevail to take such steps as will place the institute on a stronger and better basis.

Rev. E. J. Thompson signified his intention to accept the pastoral call of [illegible] his church conditionally. On motion Dr. Thompson was permitted to accept the call with the understanding that his installation be deferred till the fall meeting of the Presbytery or sooner if desired.

Mr. Johnson, a member of the congregation of Corvallis church, obtained the privilege of the floor and related the past history and struggle of the church and testified to the happy result of Dr. Thompson's ministerial labors since he has been acting as supply.

Rev. J. A. Hanna endorsed the statement of the last speaker. He said fifteen had united with the church since January last.

Thomas Condon, being present, was invited to act as a corresponding member.

A committee was appointed to select and submit names to fill vacancies in the board of trustees of the Albany Institute.

Rev. Thomas Boyd submitted a very encouraging narrative of the state of religion in the Presbytery, which was adopted.

The report of Evangelist E. R. Ingles was read and adopted and a copy ordered transmitted to the secretary of the board of home missions and to the editor of the Church at Home and Abroad.

The committee on examination of Rev. J. R. N. Bell recommended that he be taken under care of the presbytery and his ministerial work for the next six months be directed by the home mission committee, and that he be requested to pass an examination on our form of government and church history at the next fall meeting.

Petitions for the organization of Presbyterian churches were read from the following places: Aurora, Mizpah chapel, McCoy and Moro, Wasco county. Committees were appointed in relation to these petitions.

Rev. H. A. Newell presented a response to the address of the ladies' missionary committee, which was adopted and transmitted to the ladies' committee, which was in session in the basement of the church.

Half hour's devotional services were conducted by Rev. T. Boyd, which closed the morning session.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Opened by prayer by Elder Templeton.

Committee on ministerial relief recommended the appropriation of $100 to Mrs. M. Rice.

Committee on temperance submitted the following:

WHEREAS, The state of Oregon has now before it the work of adopting or rejecting an amendment to the constitution providing for the constitutional prohibition of the liquor traffic; therefore

Resolved, That we, as a presbytery, express our sympathy with the temperance work of the state, and earnestly indulge the hope that our people will do what they may to insure the adoption of this amendment. Adopted.

A committee was appointed to advise with Rev. Donald Ross, who was appointed by the synod in reference to churches in this presbytery adopting a motion to contribute their quota to the centennial fund of $5,000,000 recommended by the general assembly.

Rev. C. T. Ingle was authorized to act as moderator of churches at Gervais, Yaquina bay and Astoria.

Application from churches for aid from the home board was considered and approved.

The home mission committee were invested with the power to act in supplying certain vacant churches.

Report of committee on Sunday schools read and adopted.

Committee on centennial fund reported, recommending that a special communication be prepared on the subject and sent to each church in the presbytery. Adopted.

The afternoon session closed with prayer by Elder Condit.

Minutes of General Assembly—Revs. Geo. Ross, W. A. Smick, Elder A. W. Stowell.

On Resolutions—Revs. W. S. Holt, E. N. Condit, Elder J. L. Ewing.

Treasurer's Account—Elders John Honeyman, John A. Van Eaton, O. P. S. Plummer.

Also seven district committees on church records.

The report of the chairman of the committee on church erection and manse was submitted, showing that contributions of churches to this important board amounted during the year to only $200, while applications had been made for $2100, nearly all of which had been granted.

Rev. E. R. Murgatroyd, chairman of the committee, took occasion to urge the pastors and elders present to endeavor among their respective charges to call attention to this meagre contribution to [illegible] board and see to it that the amount be largely increased in the future, reminding them at the same time that very few church buildings had been erected within the bounds of the presbytery without generous aid from the board of church erection.

Special committee on home mission committee reported, recommending appointment of Rev. W. O. Forbes as chairman of that committee to fill vacancy caused by the death of Dr. Geary, and that [illegible] W. H. Landon be added to the committee. [illegible] It was adopted.

[illegible] records. [illegible]

[illegible] crowded [illegible] Rev. W. S. [illegible] Missionary work in [illegible]

Mrs. Ladue of Salem, president of the ladies' missionary committee, presided over the meeting [illegible] short address [illegible] admirable [illegible]. Rev. D. O. Ghormley opened the meeting with the reading of scriptures and prayer. Mrs. W. O. Forbes, secretary Presbyterial Ladies' Missionary Society, then delivered an interesting address, eloquently appealing to those present to sustain by their substance, sympathy and prayers the cause of home missions. Rev. W. S. Holt then followed and after him Rev. H. A. Newell. Both had been active laborers in the missionary fields of which they spoke, and as no short report such as this must necessarily be, could possibly do justice to either of the reverend and eloquent gentlemen we shall not attempt it. One of the most interesting features, however, in connection with the subject of Chinese missions was an address in the Chinese language by Mr. Holt to a few Chinamen occupying a seat in front of the platform on which he stood, also the rendering of the simple gospel hymn "I Love Jesus" in the Chinese language as a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Ford, Mrs. F. accompanying on the organ. The large audience was delighted with the interesting evening's entertainment, and the only mistake made by the good Christian women who arranged it was that they did not seize the opportunity presented of taking up a liberal contribution toward their noble cause by passing around the baskets for a collection.

FROM SEATTLE.

Railroad to be Built from Seattle to the Canadian Pacific.

SEATTLE, April 14.—Articles incorporating the Seattle & West Coast Railway Company were filed to-day with the territorial secretary at Olympia and in the auditor's office of this county. The objects for which this corporation is formed are: To construct and equip a railroad and telegraph line from Seattle, W. T., by the most practicable route to such point on the northern boundary line of the United States or in British Columbia as may prove most convenient and practicable to effect junction with the Canadian Pacific railway; to maintain and operate said railroad and telegraph line; carry freight and passengers on said railroad line and receive and transmit telegrams; to purchase and acquire town lots, build, lease, purchase, sell, operate and maintain steamboats, sailing or other vessels or boats that navigate the waters of Puget Sound and all other navigable waters in the territory of Washington, states of Oregon, California or province of British Columbia and the North Pacific ocean; to build, purchase, hold, own, lease, rent, maintain, operate, mortgage, sell, convey and dispose of grain elevators, warehouses, docks, wharves and other buildings for storing and forwarding grain and other commodities along any of said railroad lines. The company have now on the way 1500 tons of steel rails. These rails were bought from the Moss Bay Hematite Iron and Steel Company, Workington, England. Other shipments are expected to follow at an early day. Specifications will be ready for contractors within two weeks and the grade will be completed to Snohomish. The road will be pushed through to the Canadian boundary as fast as men and money can do it. The above shipment of rails makes over [illegible]600 tons which are now en route from England. Other shipments are to follow as fast as possible. The line of the proposed road will run from the junction of the Seattle & Eastern railroad a few miles from this city north in the direction of Snohomish and Whatcom. The survey is now completed to Snohomish and will be rapidly pushed to the British boundary. The capital stock of the corporation will be $1,000,000, divided into 10,000 shares of $100 each. The duration of the corporation is fixed at fifty years. The trustees are Henry Crawford and Henry Crawford Jr. of Chicago, Daniel H. Gilman of Seattle, Thos. Burke, Seattle, and Chas. M. Sheafe, Seattle. A meeting of the above named trustees was held this afternoon and the following officers were elected: Henry Crawford Jr., president; Henry Crawford of Chicago, vice president; W. J. Jennings, secretary and treasurer. The offices and principal place of business will be at Seattle.

UNKNOWN SUICIDE.

This morning about 8:30 o'clock Wm. Finnahan, in company with two other boys wandering through the woods near lake Washington, discovered the body of a man hanging to the limb of a small alder tree. The legs were doubled up to avoid touching the ground. The man had on a dark business suit and a pair of fine button shoes. He was apparently middle-aged. The spot where the body was found was in a ravine about a quarter of a mile from this side of the lake and three-quarters of a mile south of Jackson street. Apparently the body had been hanging about a year. There was nothing but skin and bones left, held together by the clothing. The hair was brown, head inclined to be bald, height about five feet eight inches. In a pocket was found a billhead of the steamer Nellie, which reads as follows: "Robert Beck, steamer Nellie, debtor one horse, $1. Dated May 5, 1886. Signed W. S. Mayfield." The skeleton was buried where found.

SUICIDE OF AN AGED MAN.

A sad case of suicide occurred in this city yesterday afternoon. An old gentleman named Killen, 88 years of age, appeared at one of the drug stores down town and asked for strychnine, saying he wanted it to poison rats. When asked to take "Rough on Rats," he replied that it was not strong enough. The clerk made the proper entry required by law and weighed out thirty grains. The old gentleman went to his home near the corner of Main and Sixth streets, where he took the deadly drug, and died soon after. No reason is given for the rash act other than that he was tired of life.

FROM SALEM.

OREGON WAR CLAIMS.

SALEM, April 14.—Secretary McBride to-day received a dispatch from Washington from Senator Dolph stating that the committee which was appointed to examine Oregon's war claims for expenses incurred during the civil war, amounting to over $359,000, would not reach the consideration of Oregon's claims until next March. They are now examining Texas claims. Efforts will be made to have action on the claims taken by the committee before the next session of congress.

JUDGMENT REVERSED.

The supreme court to-day reversed the judgments in the cases of the state vs. Nelson Dilley and Henry Johns, convicted in this county last October of robbing a Chinese camp near Gervais and sentenced to the penitentiary for fifteen and five years respectively. The parties are now serving sentence. The ground upon which the reversal is made is that the prosecution in the case introduced testimony in regard to the foot prints of an unshod horse ridden by one of the robbers, and endeavored to couple the foot print with a horse belonging to Dilley. The defense tried to introduce testimony showing that the horse belonging to Dilley was shod, and the testimony was excluded. For this the judgment is reversed and the case remanded back to the circuit court for trial in June.

COMMITTED FOR INSANITY.

Rudolph Meiring, a German, was to-day examined by County Judge Shaw as to sanity and ordered committed to the asylum. Meiring has been in Oregon but a short time and speaks no English. Homesickness is thought to be the cause of the derangement of mind.

NOTES.

Two members of the chaingang to-day escaped from the street commissioner by running in different directions. The street commissioner, having no assistant, was undecided which to pursue, and so he followed neither and lost both.

The Port Drug Company to-day sold their drug store to Dr. Horace W. Cox, second physician at the asylum. Dr. Cox has assumed charge, but will not resign his position at the asylum immediately. The consideration of the sale is unknown.

STATE DISPATCHES.

MARPLE'S DEATH WARRANT.

LAFAYETTE, April 14.—Sheriff Harris received yesterday from Hon. R. P. Boise the death warrant of Richard L. Marple, fixing the time of the execution on Thursday, June 2, 1887. There has been a great change in Marple during the past week. He is failing very rapidly and does not care to have callers to come and see him. It is believed by many of our citizens that Marple will never make a confession.

FROST AT JACKSONVILLE.

JACKSONVILLE, April 13.—A heavy frost fell throughout this valley last night, which killed a large part of the fruit, especially in the most exposed places. We can afford to lose at least one half and then still have plenty left.

FIRE AT ASHLAND.

ASHLAND, April 14.—Youll & Gilroy's planing mill in this place burned last night. Loss $4000; insured for $1500 jointly in the Hartford and the Commercial of California. The mill will be rebuilt at once.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

WALLA WALLA NEWS.

WALLA WALLA, April 14.—Wednesday night as two ladies were walking past an unoccupied building midway between Fort Walla Walla and the town they observed a man stretched out. They sent word to the doctor at the fort, when it was discovered to be the body of Sergeant W. L. Goff, Troop F, Second cavalry. He had shot himself through the heart with a five shooter and had been dead twenty four hours. His relatives live in Cincinnati.

A corps of O. R. & N. surveyors are running lines east of the city, evidently desirous of finding a route enabling them to swing around the city to head off the proposed road to connect it with Puget Sound.

N. T. Caton congratulates the democracy of the territory on the appointment of Semple for governor.

THROUGH TRAFFIC.

A Movement of the Atchison System to Avoid the Haul Clause.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—It is now asserted that the new line of steamships of the Atlantic & Pacific Company will be running from Ballona to this port by the middle of July. The company spent nearly $5,000,000 in making a harbor to admit deep draft vessels and freight from Southern California will doubtless come by that route. In that way the Atlantic & Pacific people think they can establish a cheap local tariff which will enable them to reduce their through rate below that of other transcontinental lines without violating the long and short haul clause of the interstate commerce law. If necessary all heavy through freight can be brought that way, while lighter and more perishable goods can be sent from Mojave by rail at [illegible]. [illegible] is at present. On the other hand it is [illegible] to be questionable whether the Atchison system could gain much advantage by making [illegible] at La Ballona and then sending freight to this city by steamer. It is certain they could not make any difference in rates for the [illegible] steamship lines [illegible] connection with railroad companies as [illegible]. As a passenger business the proposed line is worth but very [illegible] majority of people have a decided objection to sea voyage even if it be only between [illegible] Los Angeles. Were all sea [illegible] the steamers [illegible] companies plying between [illegible] would be crowded all [illegible]. Were the interstate law not to force the [illegible] it be the most valuable adjunct [illegible] business but, however [illegible] this city and the short [illegible] rail and water [illegible] through rate which goes to the Southern Pacific at present. As the contract by which Atchison people were allowed to utilize the Southern Pacific between here and Nogales was only given them to keep them out of San Francisco it is safe to surmise that the local company is not making such a very large profit out of the transaction, particularly in view of the fact that hauling freight or anything else up the steep grades of Tehachapi pass costs more per mile than any other section of the Southern Pacific. The failure of the Northern Pacific to get business from San Francisco is proof positive that the Atchison or any other semi water and rail line will not get it.

GOLDENSON SENTENCED.

The Appropriate Remarks of Judge Murphy upon Passing Sentence.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—Judge Murphy this morning denied the motion for a new trial in the case of Alexander Goldenson, convicted of murder of the school girl Mamie Kelly, and sentenced Goldenson to be hanged June 10.

In denying the motion for a new trial, the judge said it would serve no good purpose to go into a full analysis of the grounds and reasons upon which he had arrived at the conclusion to deny the motion. After having gone over the case very carefully, he was unable to see that by any action or ruling of the court the defendant had been deprived of any legal right or that injustice had been done him. In his remarks to the prisoner Judge Murphy said: "I do not purpose at this time or on this occasion to go over the evidence in the case or circumstances of the killing of the poor child Mamie Kelly. You have heard all the evidence in the case and you know all the circumstances connected with it and out of which the [illegible] arose. It is, however, due the cause of justice to say that the evidence showed the killing to have been wilful, deliberate, cruel and without any excuse, palliation or mitigation. The idea that you were insane at the time of the killing is not sustained by a particle of reliable testimony. On the contrary, your own [illegible] and actions, just before, at the time of and immediately after the murder and all the evidence in the case negative and totally destroy the suggestion of insanity." While the death sentence was being pronounced Goldenson maintained his attitude of indifference. Goldenson when [illegible] was [illegible] sat down with the evident feeling of relief that it was over.

CALIFORNIA.

ABOUT THE RACES.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—The racing season of 1887 may be said to commence on Saturday next, opening day of the Blood Horse association. Never before has there been such an auspicious outlook for a successful campaign than is the case this year, as not only have great events of the turf among the leading jockey clubs they have received heavy increase in the way of entries, and the quality of horses engaged shows an immense improvement over that of former years, owing to the constant importation of the best thoroughbred stock from England, France and Australia. Already speculation is rife on some of the chief events of early summer in the middle states and judging from telegraph reports from betting quarters a general belief exists that California horses will play a very important part at the East throughout next season. It is amusing to Californians to read comments indulged in by a few writers who profess to be perfectly informed as to the intentions of the proprietors of our two leading stables in regard to horses that will represent their interests in such races as the Kentucky Derby, Brooklyn and Suburban handicaps. It is well known here that neither touts or dabblers are allowed around the training quarters of either Santa Anita or Rancho del Paso ranches, and that Mr. Haggin is mutism itself in reference to racing plans, as also that he strenuously insists on the same reserve being held by all his employes from his trainer down to his stable boy. It is this that Californians know well that all reports about his intentions that are telegraphed from the East at a vast expense are merely drawn from the inner consciousness of New York reporters.

INCREASED PRODUCTION OF RAISINS IN CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—The Merchant to-morrow will print a statement showing that overland shipments of raisins from California for the first quarter of the present year amount to [illegible],000 pounds compared with 1,018,000 pounds for the same period last year. Reviewing the growth of this industry the article says: "It would be but a short time before foreign raisins become an unknown quantity in the United States but for one thing and that is the interstate commerce law. The freight on raisins from California to New York is 70 cents per box; from Spain to New York only 5 cents. It will thus be seen that it will be impossible for California raisins to compete with Spanish. The only protection formerly assured our raisin makers was low freights to the East. The tariff on foreign raisins is insufficient to afford us protection."

MORE EFFECTS OF THE LAW.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—T. H. Goodman, general passenger agent of the Central Pacific Company, has addressed a letter to J. G. McCall, Pacific coast agent of the Erie railway, notifying him that the Central Pacific Co. would not allow him to continue the business of sending emigrant excursion parties east over their road. Mr. Goodman assigns as the reason for this action that McCall has been furnishing extra privileges in way of accommodations to such passengers and that this would make the Central Pacific liable to penalties under the interstate commerce law, which provides that no undue preference or advantage shall be given to any person.

A CONDEMNED MAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

FAIRFIELD, Cal., April 14.—Michael Keefe, wife murderer, who is sentenced to be hanged to-morrow, attempted suicide in his bed this morning by cutting his throat. A deep wound was made in each side of his neck, but the jugular vein was not severed. Physicians who attended him report his condition to be very critical, but he may live until noon to-morrow, when he will be executed.

REDUCTION IN SUGARS.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—The California sugar refinery to-day made a reduction of one eighth of a cent on all white refined sugar. An eighth of a cent reduction was also made within the past week. This makes the price of crushed [illegible]c, dry granulated 5¾c. These prices are lower than sugar has ever been on the Pacific coast and are said to be lower than refined sugars in New York.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—Cleared: Steamer State of California, Astoria; steamer Geo. W. Elder, Victoria; ship Highland Light, Port Townsend. Sailed: Steamer Olympia, Port Townsend; ship Louisiana, Seattle; ship Solitaire, Nanaimo; ship Alaska, Tacoma; bark Mallsgate, Port Townsend; bark Johann Kepler, Port Townsend.

A VESSEL GOING TO PIECES.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, April 14.—The schooner Joshua Grindle, which was water logged on the voyage from Humboldt bay to San Pedro and whose crew was taken off by the schooner Mabel and brought to San Pedro, drifted on the shore at Pismo beach this afternoon and is now going to pieces.

WOOL DEALERS ASK RELIEF.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—The petition of a committee representing the wool dealers of California, asking the interstate commerce commission to suspend section 4, interstate law, in the transportation of wool to the East, was telegraphed to Chairman Cooley, Washington, to-day.

COMING SAN FRANCISCO RACES.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—The arrivals of blood horse strings at Bay District track are almost complete, and with the thorough raking up which the course had yesterday and the softening of the rain of Tuesday it is in prime condition for a lot of fast work on Saturday when the blood horse meeting opens.

CHEATED THE GALLOWS.

SUISUN, April 14.—Michael Keefe, a wife murderer who was to be hanged to-morrow, cut his throat with a pocket knife this morning. He resisted the efforts of the doctor to dress his wounds and died this afternoon.

CANADIAN PARLIAMENT.

The Governor General in his Speech Refers to the Fisheries Question.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 14.—The dominion parliament opened to-day. The governor general in his speech from the throne congratulated parliament on the general prosperity of the country and the prospect of the coming season of peace and progress. The queen's jubilee was referred to and her majesty congratulated on having reached the fiftieth anniversary of her reign. Referring to the fisheries question his excellency said negotiations between her majesty's government and that of the United States on the fisheries question, with respect to which my government has been fully informed and consulted, are still in progress and will we may be permitted to hope result in an arrangement honorable and satisfactory to both nations. Meanwhile necessary provisions have been made for the protection of our inshore fisheries and papers on this subject will be laid before you. A measure will be submitted to you giving representation in the senate to the northwest territories in addition to that which they now possess in the house of commons. Other measures will be laid before you and among them will be found bills for the amendment of acts relating to the government of railways and a further amendment of the Chinese immigration act.

PORTUGAL.

KINGDOM'S FINANCES.

LISBON, April 14.—In the Portuguese chamber of deputies to-day Senor de Carvalho, minister of finance, introduced the budget for 1887-88. It places this kingdom's receipts at 209,000,000 francs, ordinary expenditures at 209,000,000 francs and extraordinary expenditure at [illegible],000,000 francs. As customs receipts for the first three quarters of the present fiscal year have increased 8,000,000 francs the budget states it will be unnecessary to have recourse to credit.

IRELAND.

IRISH INDUSTRY.

DUBLIN, April 14.—Parnell, Michael Davitt and a number of other prominent Irishmen are actively engaged in the work of promoting the organization of an Irish Wool Manufacturing and Exporting Company with a capital of half a million dollars. Davitt while in the United States recently received many promises of assistance from American importers of wool.

THE COURTS.

STATE CIRCUIT COURT NO. 1.

Fred Kittery vs. [illegible] Wright & Co.; [illegible] bill of exceptions.

David Poker vs. [illegible] Leach; verdict for defendant.

STATE CIRCUIT COURT NO. 2.

State vs. A. Stoner; verdict of guilty.

State vs. Ah Wa; fined [illegible] and committed to the county jail for twenty five days in default of payment.

State of Oregon vs. Ray Ashley; plea of guilty; fined $100.

A Case Not Beyond Help.

Dr. M. H. Hinsdale, Kewanee, Ill., advises us of a remarkable cure of Consumption. He says: "A neighbor's wife was attacked with violent lung disease and pronounced beyond help from Quick Consumption. As a last resort the family was persuaded to try Dr. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. To the astonishment of all, by the time she had taken a dozen bottles she was about the house doing her own work. I saw her at her worst and had no idea she could recover."

FOREIGN DISPATCHES

ENGLAND.

NOTABLE SPEECH BY CHAMBERLAIN IN SCOTLAND.

LONDON, April 14.—The language used by Chamberlain in speaking at meetings in Ayrshire elicited cries against him and he has received a number of letters warning him that he will not leave Scotland alive. Speaking to an assemblage of 3000 persons Chamberlain said: "Our opponents have made a great cry against the repression of liberty to commit theft, to ruin industrious men and to outrage women. [Hisses.] What are you hissing, the crime or the punishment?"

Here a man rising and menacing Chamberlain cried: "It is not characteristic of the Irish to outrage women."

Then Chamberlain continued: "Do you want instances of insults offered to women? [Jeers and cries of 'outrage, you slanderer.'] I did not mean the grossest outrage of all, but personal violence. [Cheers.] Mrs. Byers, who, while accompanying the dead body of her husband, was jeered and hooted along the street. [Here the speaker was interrupted by cries of 'wash yourself' and general disorder.] I am stating facts to which opponents might listen in shame. Has the time come when we dare not discuss political matters in this country without being threatened with assassination? [Cheering.] This is the spirit of the convention at Chicago. I am sorry to know that they have any representatives in Scotland. They are not Scotchmen. That convention, besides being attended by delegates honestly in sympathy with Ireland, had delegates of different [illegible] bodies of [illegible] trade and murder [illegible] sought by the worst [illegible] conspiracy ever [illegible] civilized land [illegible] liberty to violate [illegible] law [illegible] famous to restrain the [illegible] explosions [illegible] [illegible] what happens [illegible] government [illegible] have sympathy [illegible] these [illegible] encouragement [illegible] shrink and [illegible]. We will not yield to threats from whatever quarter they come."

[illegible] Chamberlain [illegible] Gladstone [illegible] Chamberlain will be attended by a private guard.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

LONDON, April 14.—Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland, intimated in the house of commons that [illegible] no salary would be attached for the [illegible] law adviser for Ireland made for Col. King Harman. The government was aware when they appointed the incumbent that the appointment would be attacked. They had taken the highest legal advice and had been informed that their action was legal. In addition to this Balfour said the new office did not involve in acceptance by a member of the house of commons the necessity of his resigning and recontesting for re-election because the office was not a place of profit, but an emolument of the crown.

Gladstone said that the precedents required Col. King Harman to vacate his seat and seek re-election. When he (Gladstone) represented Oxford university he accepted for a short period a place in the government without salary and under legal advice vacated his seat and stood for re-election.

TREVELYAN AGAINST COERCION.

LONDON, April 14.—Sir George Trevelyan, unionist leader and formerly chief secretary for Ireland, has written a letter on the coercion bill which is tantamount to a manifesto against that measure. He says really the bill is chiefly aimed at politicians and editors opposed to the government's policy and therefore that notorious partisans like Mr. Holmes, present attorney general of Ireland, and Col. King Harman, newly appointed parliamentary secretary of Ireland, are unfit to administer the law if passed. No true liberal, he says, ought to entrust such powers to them. When Lord Spencer repeatedly refused to suppress the league no word of remonstrance emanated from the liberals. It is inconceivable that a liberal can now support a measure empowering the executive to treat Irish politicians as common criminals. In 1883, 3000 Orangemen on one occasion disturbed a national league meeting, their action leading to bloodshed, necessitating the calling out of troops to preserve the peace. Col. King Harman and Holmes actively defended these unwarrantable proceedings. There is not the slightest doubt that in the recurrence of such action the Orangemen will be liable under a clause in the present bill to punishment as criminals, but the government has effectively provided against this contingency by proposing to enact that the house of lords may veto a proclamation by the lord lieutenant. The full weight of this terrible but one sided measure is intended to fall and will fall upon the politicians of one party alone. The measure will be administered by those who beyond all question are animated by the strongest Orange sympathies and is calculated to exasperate the people without serving any useful purpose.

THE POPE AND K. OF L.

LONDON, April 14.—A statement from Rome that the congregation of the holy office had decided in favor of the recognition of the Knights of Labor in accordance with Cardinal Gibbons's request was contained in a special telegram to the London Daily Chronicle.

GLADSTONIAN SUCCESS.

LONDON, April 14.—In the election yesterday for members of the liberal association in the Birmingham division represented in parliament by John Bright, all Gladstonian candidates were returned by large majorities over unionists.

LONDON RACES.

LONDON, April 14.—At the Newmarket races to-day the Craven stakes for three-year-olds was won by half a length by Dawson's colt The Baron; Bowling's Carrasco second, half a head in front of R. Bigler's Rex.

CANADA.

NO TREATY BETWEEN CANADA AND THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The Times Ottawa special says: The dominion government has abandoned all idea of extending trade relations between Canada and the Hawaiian Islands. Last year the commissioner, Col. Walker Powell, was sent out to Honolulu to collect information on the subject and to ascertain what could be done with a view to securing closer commercial relations with Hawaii. He has just reported the failure of his mission to Sir John Macdonald. He represents that the renewal of the reciprocity treaty between the United States and Hawaii precluded all possibility of Canada making any arrangements in that direction. He found the white population and the government of King Kalakaua strongly in favor of annexation to the United States, although the king and native princes opposed it. Col. Powell reports that had there been no arrangements with the United States the Hawaiian government would gladly have made a treaty with Canada.

CANADIAN MEASURES.

OTTAWA, April 14.—The announcement in the governor general's speech was the first intimation Canadian legislators had that the government proposed to ask parliament to vote money to build a canal on Canadian territory at Sault Ste Marie. To-night there is considerable discussion around the lobby in regard to it. Everybody asks: "What does it mean?" A prominent legislator expressed the opinion that this is a precautionary step against passing the stringent retaliation measure by congress and that the Canadian Pacific railway had induced the government to take up the work. President Stephens and Sir Donald Smith were in town last week and had numerous interviews with Sir John McDonald. The Canadian Pacific does a big steamship business on Lake Superior every season and were the [illegible] of the Michigan canal refused them the company's large traffic would be annihilated.

CANADIAN RECIPROCITY.

TORONTO, April 14.—Canadian manufacturers will this week publish a synopsis of letters received by the association from a number of prominent manufacturers regarding questions of commercial union and reciprocity of manufactures between Canada and the United States. The sentiment expressed by the manufacturers is entirely against the proposition, which they consider vitally inimical to their interests, and they say that they will resist it by all means in their power.

LEGISLATURE AT WINNIPEG.

WINNIPEG, April 14.—At the opening of the sixth legislature to-day David Glass, nominee of the opposition for speaker, accepted the government nomination for the same office, thus leaving the opposition combination in the minority. The new policy was adopted as to railroads, the speech from the throne accepting all measures the opposition was contending for, including connection with the American system of railways and aid for the [illegible] Bay railroad and reduction of civil service [illegible].

FRANCE.

PARTICULARS OF THE VICTORIA WRECK.

PARIS, April 14.—Further particulars of the [illegible] Dieppe of the Newhaven and Dieppe packet Victoria show that the vessel struck the rocks [illegible]. The passengers immediately rushed to the stern, which through a downward tilt of the bow was buoyed up by the deep water on that side of the rocks. A terrible scene then ensued while endeavors were being made to lower the lifeboats, which were seriously interfered with by the heavy swell of the sea. At last when a boat was ready to be lowered and fifteen men and one child [illegible] in it, a lady's shawl became entangled in the [illegible] davit and caused the boat to [illegible] bow foremost. Most of the occupants were thrown out and drowned. Two ladies jumped from the deck of the steamer into the [illegible] reached the water and overturned. [illegible] boats were then safely launched and reached [illegible] Fecamp, resulting [illegible] two persons who had been [illegible] into the sea.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND.

PARIS, April 14.—Temps says England has assured France that she has no intention of making [illegible] Hayti [illegible] the indemnity demand [illegible] the French admiral [illegible] has been ordered to [illegible].

ITALY.

THE RUSSIAN REPRESENTATION.

ROME, April 14.—The pope has been informed [illegible] that [illegible] his recently expressed [illegible] that on the occasion of the expected [illegible] the Russian representative at the Vatican will be raised to the rank of an embassy.

AUSTRIA.

BULGARIAN WAR SUPPLIES.

VIENNA, April 14.—A commission of Bulgarian officers en route from Krupp's ordnance works to Sofia with a large quantity of war material has arrived here. Austria has permitted passage of the material through the empire.

COMMERCIAL

THURSDAY, April 14.

The week's weather has perhaps been seasonable enough, but much of the spring as has passed has been wet and backward. For seven days ended Thursday noon the precipitation here has been 1.7 100 in. and to date this month 2.15 in. Agricultural interests have suffered not a little delay from the rains of last month and the current one. Yet there is no particular apprehension of material damage or ill results to the different cereal crops.

Str. Yaquina City at San Francisco 10th inst. from Yaquina Bay landed 1987 sks wheat, 2593 sks oats, 139 sks potatoes, 410 hf 92 qr sks flour, 23 cs eggs, 34 sks oysters, 6 bdls hides, 15 bdls skins.

San Francisco Commercial News: It is hard to find in what way the interstate law is going to benefit the people, while every day new industries and branches of trade or commerce feel the ill effects of the law. The latest development particularly adverse to the working population is the effect on the potato market. During March receipts averaged 2800 sacks per day and for the first nine days in April the average was but 500 sacks, the receipts from Salt Lake, which found a ready market here, being cut off as well as nearly so from other distant producing sections of less importance. Of course the potato cultivators must be the ones benefited, while the consumers have to pay double and triple for the article.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS—Last twenty four hours: 1304 ctls wheat, 310 ctls oats, 40 ctls bran, [illegible] sks potatoes, [illegible] lbs wool, [illegible] dried fruit [illegible].

FREIGHTS—[illegible] week. The [illegible] [illegible] Two [illegible] [illegible] San Francisco is rapidly [illegible] grain [illegible] [illegible] be higher than the [illegible] now spoken of. The Martha [illegible] [illegible] to furnish a [illegible]. The Glenfinlas, 8[illegible] tons, proceeds to [illegible] Sound for lumber under charter effected at home. This reduces the open list to nine iron and two wood. Several of the iron are preparing for a [illegible].

WHEAT—Receipts for the past week have been almost wholly for shipment to San Francisco. The local market has shown little or no life and transactions reported were consummated in the interior, the total of business done being considerable. Buyers paid up to $1.50 at favorable points for shipment to San Francisco and secured several lots. Millers also bought at $1.4[illegible]@$1.50, generally at or near the extreme. These figures are quoted now but there is no stability to the market, operators fearing a serious and sudden break at San Francisco and showing less inclination to speculate on shipments. Walla Walla does not comparatively do as well as valley, for California millers cannot use it in best grades and it can only be said to have one market where valley has two. Perhaps $1.40 would be an average quotation, although more may be possible. Business in this grade is largely on through account.

Features of the week include an increase in the American visible of 329,000 bushels, continued heavy dealing in options at San Francisco at rather lower prices with a rally almost to last Thursday's figures at the close, a three pence decline abroad in cargoes and lower prices in the middle of the week in the New York and Chicago boards. Light rains in California affected the market there for a few days only. They improved crop prospects, but the crowd interested in keeping up prices were strong enough to prevent any material break in options. Prices are on such a level as to preclude shipping and there is no saying how or when affairs will turn. Meanwhile millers have to pay very high prices and have taken rather freely of Oregon wheats. Our dealers have sold ahead in the San Francisco market and are now delivering or have shipped and speculated on a rise. Both these methods have been profitable, but the available supply of wheat here is dwindling. Millers have taken that offered in the interior, sales for the week footing up a rather large total. Tidewater stocks are about 8000 tons. Engaged tonnage at hand is loading flour and as long as San Francisco continues as it now is we need look for no foreign export business here.

FLOUR—Receipts only fair and the export movement is mostly foreign. During the week the Scottish bark [illegible] sailed for London with a cargo by the Portland Mills. The same mills have cleared the Jupiter and have three vessels at hand to fill. The local market furnishes little room for comment. Agents of Walla Walla and valley brands have generally raised demands 25c. Agents for standard brands quote no change, but the feeling favors an advance. Standards quoted on basis of $4 25; other valley brands $4@4 25; Walla Walla $3 75@4.

MILLSTUFF—Stocks light and orders are filled with difficulty. Values firm throughout, some sorts showing recent advances. Corn and barley freely dealt in, although stocks of corn are being reduced. We quote jobbing values of all kinds of feed: Bran $20@21, shorts $22, chop $2[illegible]@30, ground barley $28@30, cracked corn $29 50@30, whole do $[illegible], oil meal $32 50 per ton.

POTATOES—Better advices and sharp competition among buyers have further advanced prices, which are now at a height to bring out all remaining. Shippers had arranged to ship all on hand to-day, and local orders were hard to fill. Paying prices are $1 55@1 60 for Garnets, $1 [illegible] for Peerless and $2 for Burbanks, some of the latter bringing a shade more. Early Rose for seed are more plentiful at $1 50. The Sound steamer yesterday landed 4000 sacks at San Francisco with but slight effect upon prices or the market.

ONIONS—Dealers pay 3@3½c, but the market appears to be weaker with last advices.

GREEN FRUIT—Apples very irregular, choice for shipment commanding up to $1 50, while the bulk of arrivals bring 50c@$1. Oranges in large receipt and selling at $2 50@3. Lemons $5 50@6. Bananas $4 25. Tomatoes [illegible] 25.

VEGETABLES—Selling prices are: Cabbage 3½c, peas 6c, asparagus 4c, celery 85c, cauliflower $1.

BUTTER—California fresh roll firm at 21@22c; pickled 20c. Local roll 22½@25c and solid 15c. Supplies all around are liberal enough.

EGGS—Receipts quite free, but demands have been good and the price advanced to 14c. At this the market closes, but is not strong.

HAY—Good to choice baled firm at $18@20, tight pressed bringing $21. Demands good and supplies not complained of.

THE MEAT MARKET.

Supplies not complained of, but prices are firm. Quote beef [illegible]@5c for live and 8½c dressed; mutton 5c live and 8½c dressed; hogs 6 and 8 for live and dressed; veal 7@8. Lambs brought about $[illegible] 50.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, April 14.—Foreign interests again turned up as buyers this morning, a reduction in bank of England rate being one of the causes of the movement. The opening was firm to strong, first prices showing advances over last evening's figures of from [illegible] to ¼ per cent. Notwithstanding heavy purchases the pressure of stocks for sale forced the list [illegible], early dealings in the market being feverish and irregular. This was succeeded by comparative dullness, when under influences of specialties a better tone was in [illegible] of the dealings, and at noon prices closely approximated those of the opening. Jersey Central, that broke badly, and the general list sympathized to a [illegible] extent and remained heavy till towards 1 P. M. The height of the rally occurred in the last hour and the close was moderately active and firm, close to opening figures.

Government bonds were dull and steady.

MONEY, BONDS AND STOCKS.

NEW YORK, April 14.—Money on call easy, ranging from 4 to 6, closing offered 5. Prime mercantile paper [illegible]. Sterling exchange dull and easy; $4 85@4 86 for sixty days, $4 8[illegible]@4 8[illegible].

DR. JOHN BULL'S SMITH'S TONIC SYRUP FOR THE CURE OF FEVER and AGUE Or CHILLS and FEVER, AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of KENT'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient. Use no other.
